Our new Book Exchange is open! Guidelines regarding the exchange of books are posted in the room. There is a wide variety of books available. You are welcome to take a book, bring it back when you are finished, and take another one. It is our hope that everyone has a good experience using the exchange. And our thanks to all who have given books, but we can still use more. Just remember the books must be by Christian authors or have Christian content. The Book Exchange room is located next to the ladies room in the sanctuary foyer.

Your help is needed!

A teacher is needed for the PreK-Kindergarten class in Sunday School. If interested, see Faye Huffty or Elizabeth McLellan.

Ladies, come paint a Christmas sign on December 4 at 6 p.m. The cost is $30 and is due by November 25. Sign up on the sheet on the back table in the sanctuary.

Thank You

My NCH Family,

I want to thank you for the prayers, calls, texts, cards and other acts of kindness prior to and since the home going of my beloved sister, Ola Joles. In the difficult days and hours, you know you are being lifted up in prayer as evidenced by the comfort and peace you feel. Thank you, my church family, for believing and practicing the power in prayer.

My heart is broken that Ola is no longer with us, but I rejoice in knowing she is in heaven, walking streets of gold and no longer suffering. I love you and I am blessed to be a part of a loving and generous church like New Chapel Hill.

Cathy Hopkins

Our thanks to all those who helped make Operation Christmas Child at New Chapel Hill such a great success. We delivered 438 boxes to Fair Park Thursday. Many (too numerous to mention) helped in various ways this year, and we are truly grateful for you. To all those who packed boxes, a job well done! Thank You!

Ray of Hope is growing! They give out 1,300 food boxes to needy families each month. However, there is a great need for 2 freezers as the old ones have gone out. If you would like to contribute to this cause, see Ernie McCormick or Bobbie Camp. All donations are greatly appreciated.
