Our Mission:

To Know
Jesus
And Make Him
Known

The Nailing of Jesus on The Cross.

I was assigned to paint that particular station of the cross by the Biedenharn Museum in 2020. Other local artists were assigned a different station. The painting process ended up being a healing experience for me after my husband passed away. I was so heartbroken; the pain of grief was deep! I felt like God was the only One who could truly understand my pain. I needed Him, was seeking Him, and could feel His presence helping me through my grief! I wanted to honor Him with this painting. I prayed for His guidance and He laid it out for me! Even with the choices of colors! I LOVE colors, and this one was to be colorful as well, until I woke up one morning with a clear vision to use black, white and red! I tried different sketches using bright colors but it didn't work, so I had to settle on God's palette! Painting Jesus being nailed on the cross was heartbreaking! He was in pain, deep pain. We were together in pain. He didn't let go of me. He extended his arm and was right there looking at me, encouraging me, and giving me His peace and strength. His blood was pouring out love, reassuring me that with His sacrifice I will see my husband again.

Through Him and with Him, whatever you are going through right now will be okay. Call His name, He is listening! I named this painting,

"Come As You Are".
